

FIPSG AUCTION No. 89 - 27 OCTOBER 2021

Auction 89 will be a postal auction. It is a private auction, all vendors are paid up members of the Study Group and bids will only be accepted from similar bona fide members. The last date for receipt of postal bids will be Wednesday, 27 October 2021.

CONDITIONS OF SALE

1. Each lot is sold subject to any reserve price, disclosed or not.
2. Subject to the above, the highest bid shall secure the purchase. Title shall pass at the fall of the hammer but ownership will transfer when payment is complete.
3. The conduct of the auction and the bidding shall be regulated by and be at the discretion of the Auction Manager, who has the right to refuse any bids and to terminate any dispute.
4. Bidding shall proceed by:- £1 steps to £20, £2 steps to £50, £5 steps to £100, £10 steps to £200 and £20 thereafter. A non conforming bid will be reduced to the next LOWER step and WILL NOT overbid a previous bid at this step. No conditional bid will be accepted.
5. Vendors have described their own lots and stated their estimates and reserves. The Study Group, its officers and Auction Manager accept no responsibility for any statements in the catalogue or elsewhere. Any dispute which arises under this auction subsequent to the sale shall be between vendor and buyer, although the Auction manager may act as arbitrator and determine the dispute.
6. The Study Group hold insurance (arranged by Wardrop & Co Ltd) for the benefit of members, covering the auction material from the time of delivery to the Auction Manager until safe return to the vendor or delivery to the purchaser. This may be extended to include the delivery transit but only at the discretion of the Auction Manager and his written confirmation of his acceptance of the description of the material and method of transit.
7. All postal bids should be sent, on the bid form by e mail subject to the conditions contained herein to the Auction Manager: mjyr@btinternet.com to arrive no later than Wednesday 27th October 2021
8. In the case of tied bids, the first bid received will be taken as the winner. The successful bid shall be one step above the next highest bid. If there is only one bid received for the lot and it is at or above the reserve, estimate or is a bid considered fair by the Auction Manager, it shall be successful.
9. Purchasers in the UK or overseas must settle their accounts by return after receipt of lots or payment request. We seek settlement at the outset and look to purchasers to use either an internet banking facility or a telephone payment using our new card payment service if at all possible. It is safer and more convenient in these present times.
10. As far as the Study Group is aware, it is not required to register for VAT, but should any liability be subsequently found to apply, the Study Group reserves the right to charge vendors and purchasers as applicable.
11. You may not bid as an agent without prior notice to the Auction Manager and in any event you will be liable in full for any lot successfully bid for. No conditional bids will be accepted, this includes bids made on the expectation of subsequent expertisation. Purchasers must satisfy themselves before bidding as to the correctness of the description, no subsequent refunds will be given.

COMMISSION CHARGES will be charged to the vendors as follows: Sold lots up to £1000, 10% of the sale price; 5% will be charged on any excess over this level. In this auction there will be no charge for unsold lots.

PLEASE NOTE - ALL SINGLE ITEMS WITH AN ESTIMATE OF £20 OR ABOVE ARE ILLUSTRATED ON THE WEBSITE
